INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND SONOMA.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in the Valley as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Bill Ashe of Glen Ellen was in town Saturday.

Miss Cecelia Dowdall was up from the metropolis this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rainey and son are guests of C. F. Carner.

W. Steckmeyer is here from Oakland this week visiting relatives.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan of Sonoma was here on business Monday.

A large number of our local folks attended the circus at Santa Rosa last Thursday.

Andrew Goess took the south-bound passenger train from El Verano Monday morning.

August Marcy, beau brummel of the valley, was an S. P. passenger to the county seat last Saturday.

Mrs. D. McIvor and family, after spending the summer here, returned to their Berkeley home on last Sunday.

W. McDaniels left for the city Tuesday. Mr. McDaniels recently underwent an operation and is getting along nicely.

Leon Mouyer, who is employed by the Southern Pacific Company in Berkeley, spent Sunday and Monday with his father here.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hunt, after a pleasant visit of several days at the A. W. Weaver home, returned to Martinez the fore part of the week.

There is a breach of promise suit between Billy Freeman, bar tender, and the barber at the El Verano villa. It promises to be interesting when started.

Supervisor H. Weise and wife, accompanied by Bill Ashe of Glen Ellen, were among the many that took in the Cadets celebration at Agua Caliente last Saturday evening.

A large crowd from here attended the League of the Cross Cadets encampment at Agua Caliente Saturday and Sunday. Everybody was loud in their praise of the drilling done by the boys.

The Knights of Pythias held their annual picnic at Boyes Springs last Sunday. A large crowd journeyed to that place and a pleasant outing was had by all. The picnickers traveled by special train.

A. L. Block, our live ventriloquist, gave one of his old-time performances at the Oak Grove Villa last Sunday evening. A number of San Francisco and local guests were present and enjoyed the show.

The celebrated race horse, Jim Logan, who won the coast championship at the races lately at Woodland and was in the same race as Mike C. of Sonoma passed through here Monday en route to the races at Santa Rosa. The Logan horse is expected to do big things at Santa Rosa.

Another live editorial appeared in the Santa Rosa Republican one day last week which was read with interest. It was about our agitator and fake recaller, Guy Bigelow. Every word was the truth and if he don't let go he is liable to be thinking that there are some live writers in Sonoma county.

Gabriel Sears, our local obituary, was the big show last Sunday afternoon when he was surrounded at Agua Caliente by a number of the League of the Cross Cadets. Gabriel was telling the boys all about the early days in California, his great rodeo feats, and gave them several war whoops to let them know he was in town.

Charley Miller, Verano's hope, accompanied by Frank Carter, left for New York one day last week to seek fame in the heavy weight division. Before leaving San Francisco, Charley, in an interview with Tom McGilligan of the S. F. Bulletin, had the following to say: "Ach Himmel!" said Miller, "it is dot I have the bad luck. Here it is dot I have a match with Arthur Pelkey in Los Angeles and along comes the Willard-Young match and the sad ending, and pout there is no match. Ten before that I have the fine business at Verano and along comes der ker-nockers and they close the place by me. But der worstest is yet to come. I make application as I can become a citizen wid de United States and the feller wot makes a voter he tells me dot I am an undersiable citizen and says I am lucky I aint deported already yet for conducting a resort of questionable character and then to add more mit wot I got, I got from Burlington a letter wot says my mother-in-law she dies. I say Keabibble, she leaves me the money yet and that makes it a little better, but ach Himmel dees iss a tough world." These were the departing words of big Charley, whom we wish luck in his speed across the continent in quest of the heavyweight championship of the world.

THE BLACK POINT CUT-OFF SURVEY.

It Has Been Completed by the County Surveyors of Sonoma and Marin

The survey of the proposed Black Point Cut-off has been completed on this side of Petaluma creek by County Surveyor Tom McNamara and his corps of assistants, and he is now ready to report to the Board of Supervisors.

The survey on the Marin side has also been completed, and the County Surveyor of Marin county has made his report to the Supervisors of that county.

The proposition is looked on with favor both in this and Marin counties and the Black Point bridge and cut-off may now be considered an assured fact.

When the estimated cost of the great improvement will have been reported to the Supervisors of both Marin and Sonoma counties, Napa county will then be appealed to for her share of the cost.

Mayor Cummings Receives the League of Cross Cadets.

The League of the Cross Cadets who spent the week-end in encampment at Agua Caliente Springs, were received on Sunday evening last by the popular mayor of Sonoma, M. E. Cummings. The Mayor expressed himself with delighted surprise both as to the numerical strength and the high standard of efficiency displayed by the cadets and was pleased that the honor of review was tendered to him.

The League of the Cross Cadets is a military organization of Catholic young men who are total abstainers and live clean, moral lives, besides each young man must be of physical fitness for United States military academies and must uphold and be governed by the U. S. military tactics. There is today in the United States no other civil or military organization founded and maintained on such principles as the above. The Cadets have attracted the attention of the Federal military authorities, and Major General Leonard Wood, U. S. army, on his recent visit to San Francisco, said it would be the greatest possible blessing for the United States if every church and city would organize and train such men and in such a way as the League of the Cross.

Was a Prize Winner.

Martin Brady Hill, the six-months-old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill of Boyes Springs, was one of the prize winners in the recent baby show in Santa Rosa. He scored 985 out of a possible 1000, and now his dad is puffed out like a toad over the showing of his first offspring.

Vagaries of that Recall Petition.

An erroneous impression has gone abroad that Mrs. Chase, proprietor of Chase's Inn in this city, signed the Weise recall petition. It is true the petition was signed by a Mrs. Chase, who is in favor of recalling Mr. Weise, but Mrs. Chase of Chase's Inn takes no stock in the recall election. We make this statement so as to put the latter right before the general public.

MAN FIRES TWO SHOTS AT WOMAN

He Misses His Mark, However—Arrested and Jailed by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan

Last Thursday afternoon John Ritzman, an employee on the Mammy Pleasant ranch near Glen Ellen became involved in a dispute with Mrs. Teresa Bell, formerly of the "house of mystery," San Francisco, over wages due him, and in the mix-up which followed Ritzman drew a revolver and fired two shots at the woman, both of which missed his intended victim. He was in the act of firing a third shot when John Lavere, another employee on the ranch, seized a heavy water pitcher and came to Mrs. Bell's rescue. He knocked Ritzman down with a blow on the head and rendered him unconscious. The shooter was then disarmed and turned over to Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan who later took his prisoner to Santa Rosa and lodged him in the county jail to answer to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Ritzman in defense of his action claimed Mrs. Bell had attacked him with a club when he demanded $100 for wages due him, and that he shot in self-defense.

Ritzman has a wife and five children, the former being mentally unbalanced. He claims Mrs. Bell furnished his wife with liquor and drugs and is responsible for her condition.

Mrs. Bell will tell her story at the preliminary examination of Ritzman when it comes up in court.

A FEW TIMELY QUESTIONS

Relating to the Recall Election in the First Supervisorial District.

BY CHAS. SPINDLER.

Did any of the ladies and gentlemen when voting on the roadhouse proposition vote for this measure with the understanding that only eleven roadhouses, having 35 or more rooms, should be allowed to have a bar?

Did any understand that only such roadhouses trading with F. Duhring or advertising in the flapdoodle Expositor or buying old chickens of Guy Bigelow were to be singled out and receive a commission in form of a liquor license for putting up cold cash for merchandise or old chickens?

Has any fair minded lady or gentleman considered the recall election to oust Supervisor Weise from the point of honesty and impartiality and then come to the conclusion differing from the fact that the whole movement is dirty spite work?

Is there a voter in the First Supervisorial district who cannot see through the whole game, to wit:

First: The underhanded work of the Anti-Roadhouse people to create a set of friendly, tribute-paying roadhouses by hook and crook, going as far as fraudulently appearing before the Board of Supervisors as a committee of the dead and defunct Chamber of Commerce of Sonoma and persuading, bull-dozing, the Board of Supervisors to grant but eleven licenses to their customers of merchandise and old chickens.

Second: The cry of one Guy Bigelow that the Supervisor broke the deed of trust by granting licenses to other 35-room roadhouses that were not paying toll to him in form of advertising in his Expositor, and that in consequence the Supervisor had to be recalled.

Has any voter looked into the question at issue unbiased, I mean those voters particularly who are not depending upon trading their old chickens to roadhouses for chicken-dinners for the S. F. Sunday guests, or those who can make a living in Sonoma Valley without paying tribute to Guy Bigelow, sustaining him by advertising in the flapdoodle Expositor and come to any other logical fact? That if Tom has 35 rooms as well as Harry, he should be entitled to the same privilege under the law?

Is it really possible that any thinking lady or gentleman voter can be persuaded by foul talk and lies, circulated by a malicious dead politician, into action against their own interest, viz: recalling a public servant who has made good and has acted in accordance with the law but disobeyed the order of the Chicken King or would-be Czar of Sonoma Valley together with his cronies, the dead ones of Sonoma city? Too bad that dear Rudolph is busy in Washington and cannot write a confirming letter.

Is it clear to all ladies and gentlemen voters that by recalling Weise or voting against him they are making the order of the Chicken King the supreme law, above and ahead of the common law or the will of the people? Are lady and gentlemen voters fully aware of the cost to each brought about by the follies of that Guy who has nothing better to do than to disturb the peace of the community?

And regarding the future and considering his past performances vis: Anti-Saloon league agitator, Anti-Roadhouse general and good mothers association originator and the flat failure when attempting to become the presiding chairman of the Sonoma Socialist, could anybody suggest anything better than vaudeville for that Guy to give us peace in the valley?

By the way feathers are plentiful just now, but tar has gone up in price lately.

An Insult to Sonoma Valley's Citizenship

Bigelow in his last Saturday's Expositor published the names of between 70 and 75 citizens who have recently registered in the various precincts of the First Supervisorial District, and in glaring black type over those names offers a reward of $25 for any information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any one that has falsely registered.

Such bulldozing tactics by the egotistical ass that shapes the policy of the Expositor ought to be severely rebuked at the polls on September 16th by the citizenship of this Supervisorial district.

This reward of $25 placed over the names of those whom he publishes is a direct insult to each and every one of them. For the most part these names represent the very best citizenship of this district, but he would have the general public believe that they are perjurers and crooked in their ways by offering his fool reward of $25 per.

Misconstrues Judge Seawell's Decision.

The Bigelow organ of last Tuesday in glaring headlines asserts that Judge Seawell says cottages are not part of hotels. This is a lie pure and simple because Judge Seawell in his recent decision defining what constituted a thirty-five room hotel said nothing of the kind. He did say that tents were not a part of a bona fide hotel, but emphatically denies that he passed upon the question of cottages.

In commenting upon Judge Seawell's decision the Press Democrat says:

"At first hand the opinion in the Newton case seemed to contain an intimation that Judge Seawell would also construe a 'cottage' in the same light as a tent. The report that such was the case caused considerable consternation as such a ruling would have meant the closing of practically all the prominent summer resorts in Sonoma county, many of them old established and with permanent cottages making up the required quota of rooms and more."

"The question of tents was the only one passed upon by Judge Seawell, as he himself stated when interviewed last night. The question of cottages was not passed up to him for judicial determination. Anything said inferentially in the opinion, the Judge said, must not be taken in the nature of a judicial determination as to cottages. All he passed upon was in relation to tents. The other question, he said, would involve more serious consideration."

"For a time, until Judge Seawell followed up his opinion with a statement made in an interview, it appeared as if tents and cottages had been included in the decision of the Court."

The Secret Disclosed.

[Santa Rosa Republican, August 29th.]

"The Sonoma Expositor of Tuesday, August 26, finally exposed the real (-) animus of the recall attempt in the case of Supervisor Weise, and shows the people the reverse side of the placard which that sheet printed a few weeks ago."

"The original demanded the recall of Weise; the supervisor; the man—who would not do as 'Boss Bigelow' demanded. He had left undone those things he ought to have done—even if he had not done enough of those things which he ought to have done to entitle him to be kicked out, but he could produce no health certificate to meet the views of the Bigelow coterie."

"In Tuesday's issue the editor (or his proxy) says it is not Mr. Weise, the man—the supervisor—that the recall is aimed at, but a mythical 'system,' which prevents a handful of disgruntled office seekers in the Sonoma valley from dictating to the majority of the people of Sonoma county."

"The mouthings, rantings, ink spilling of these poor imitations of self-advised moulders of public opinion are pitiful in their paucity of expression."

"In one paragraph the irresponsible writer accuses Mr. Weise of having wilfully and knowingly violated the anti-roadhouse ordinance, and yet the Expositor claims it is not after Mr. Weise, but it is the 'system' behind him it would reach."

"The REPUBLICAN would 'call down' Mr. Weise, or any or all members of the Board of Supervisors quickly and in unmistakable terms if they, any or all of them, violated a law or ordinance of Sonoma county—much sooner than it would call attention to every sore-headed office seeker who chooses to bring before a grand jury charges he could not prove—which would have brought him condign punishment had there been any provision in our insufficient statutes to bring such a slanderer to book."

"The official paper of Sonoma county" had an enviable reputation many years before the boss trouble maker of the Sonoma Valley made his advent."

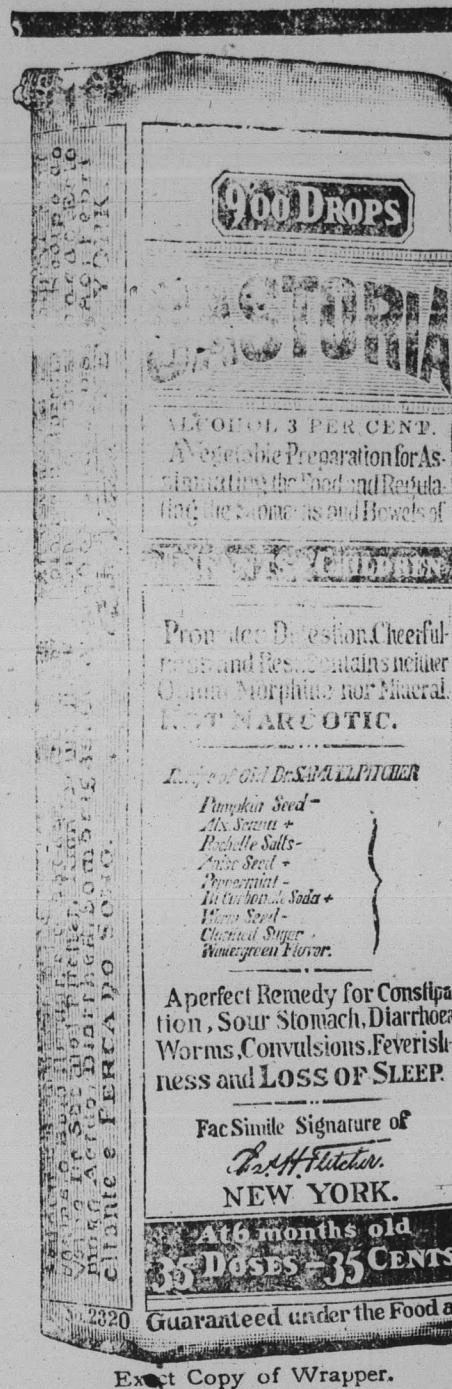

"It will have a still more enviable reputation long after Bigelow and Bigelowism have faded from the memory of contented and prosperous Sonoma Valley."

"There is no system; no organization for aught but to serve the public weal; no inimical influence in Sonoma county, but Bigelow would have the people of the Sonoma Valley believe these things in order to influence them against a supervisor who has done his duty faithfully."

"A campaign of misrepresentation has been launched in the Sonoma Valley, and those behind the effort to recall Supervisor Weise are using these things to influence voters. It has been asserted that one man conducts two saloons on one license, that licenses are in vogue where persons have less than the thirty-five rooms made necessary by the initiative ordinance adopted by the people of the Sonoma Valley, in conjunction with the remainder of the county. These people know this is to be absolutely false."

"What the Sonoma Valley needs most is peace, and political disturbers are not doing that section any good by keeping it in a turmoil of unrest and excitement all the time. Supervisor Weise has done much since he was elected to make the valley a better place in which to live, has improved the roads, built culverts, secured the aid of all the Supervisors for his district to the extent of $15,000 for a bridge for the Black Point cut-off. Yet he did not please Bigelow, and for that reason must be made the object of an attack by that individual. Supervisor Weise desires to purify the Sonoma Valley as much as Guy Bigelow ever did, yet he must obey the law which declares that where a man has thirty-five rooms in a bona fide hotel, he is entitled to a license. Weise is not charged with breaking laws, but he has displeased Bigelow, and that appears to be his greatest sin. There is no man in the valley who can better represent the section than Harry Weise. He has resided there many years and knows the requirements of the section, and is improving the roads and bridges all the time. The man selected to oppose him is one who has hardly become settled there as yet, does not know the people of the section or their requirements, and does not even spend his time there, except to sleep at his home each night. Harry Weise should be continued in office and will receive an overwhelming vote at the special election on September 16th."

A Pioneer Comes Back

James Martin of San Francisco who is well known to many old timers as one of the pioneer blacksmiths in the valley's palmy days, spent last Sunday and Monday visiting his old friends. Time has treated Jimmie kindly, in fact he has grown younger. He became reminiscent and told us of many interesting events. He recalled the days when John C. Fremont used to march his soldiers around the Plaza and also explained how the Bear Flag party captured the town; when old man Jacobson constructed the Cooper bridge, and when Swift built the stone mansion Jim was there on the job. He recalled with pride the great dinners the boys used to enjoy at the Buena Vista under the reign of Monsieur Anger. Jim says he remembers when Jake Meyer of Vineburg was smooth-shaven. Jim and Jake were the dudes of the town. Come back again, Jim, you are always welcome.

Reception at High School.

The freshman reception, which took place on Friday evening of last week in the large assembly hall of the High School building on Broadway, was a very enjoyable affair. Between dancing there were a number of musical selections by Mr. Knolle, Miss Gladys Simmons and Mr. Rowell. The latter who is principal of the school is gifted with a beautiful baritone voice of rich quality and his solos were beautifully rendered. The hall was tastefully decorated and delicious iced punch was served. About 35 couples were present.

Congregational Church, September 7th, 1913.

Morning worship at 11 a. m. We may be in great pain and when we consult the doctor, he cuts out of us the caudal remnant to relieve us. I have been listening to a strain of disrespect for the Church and my advice would be to "cut it out," for then there would not be so much abdominal uneasiness. One of two things is true, either he has intelligence and has lost his self respect or he has ignorance and needs intelligence. A man does not get right any faster than he parts with wrong. I have seen a fretful babe slap its mother. She did not get mad but gently and lovingly patted its hand to make an impression.

We were born in labor. Jesus said, "My father worketh hitherto and I work." Labor would not be thinking the thoughts it thinks today if it were not for the truth Jesus injected into the world and that his Church is preaching and has preached in the past. All progress has been made on the lines of that truth. Take a hitch in your belt and roll out of bed on Sunday in time to come to Church to hear a sermon on labor. The Springs have given you their fun and taken your tribulation, but salvation is free. Truth gives you joy and adds no sorrow.

Evening service at 7:30 p. m. Please notice the change of time of this service from the summer to the winter schedule. We will begin the service with song. We have a fine new song book and a good choir so come and enjoy the music. Rev. G. D. Goskum will lecture on the subject of Schools and Citizenship. We need good citizens and better school buildings.

The El Verano Development Association

The weekly business meeting of the El Verano Development Association was held in its well appointed club rooms last Thursday night, and was attended by thirty-five enthusiastic members. President Jas. Baines presided over the meeting with dignity and grace and in calling the meeting to order he made a most fitting speech.

Three new members were unanimously elected, bringing the membership up to 103, and today the El Verano Development Association is one of the largest and most influential civic bodies in the Sonoma Valley and destined to yield a powerful influence in civic affairs in this section of Sonoma county. The members are all boosters for public improvements and are a unit in that respect.

The meeting was a most instructive one and some excellent speeches were made by President Jas. Baines, Chas. Spindler, Senator Sprague and others.

After the business of the Association had been transacted the members enjoyed a smoker, which was enlivened by singing by the various members, a slight of hand performance by A. Block and recitations.

The Association meets again next Thursday night.

Hay Market.

Somer's & Co., in their weekly bulletin report the hay market for the past week as follows:

During the past week arrivals of hay were considerably less than have been received for some little time, the total amounting to 3442 tons in comparison with something over 5000 tons per week for the last month or six weeks.

The comparatively light receipts have been quite a relief to handlers of hay here, the previous congestion making it very difficult to move the hay from the tracks and wharves within the required time.

It is quite probable that from now on we will continue to have lighter receipts, for in many sections the fields are fairly well cleaned up and there is not the large amount of hay seeking a market as before.

Although prices cannot be quoted as being higher, yet there is a trifle better feeling locally for certain grades of hay which are in light supply.

From now on local trade will be quiet, for nearly all consumers have filled their barns to capacity or arranged for their feeding supplies for the next few months.

This fact, together with the lack of any outside demand, will probably prevent any advance in prices until such time as we have some indication of the fall and winter weather conditions.

Lewis & Cummings have got in a fresh lot of bulk sauerkraut.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION

A petition having been filed herein by the electors of the First Supervisorial District of Sonoma county, demanding the recall and the election of a successor to J. H. On such ballot under each such question, there shall also be printed the names of those persons who have been nominated in the manner provided by law for candidates for such office as candidates to succeed such person sought to be recalled, in case he shall be removed from office by such recall election.
